For Immediate Release

Danielle Meyer Joins Zetlin & De Chiara LLP

NEW YORK (January 9, 2019) – Construction law firm Zetlin & De Chiara LLP announced today the addition of Danielle Meyer, who joins the firm’s New York office as an Associate.

Ms. Meyer is well versed in all phases of the construction process. Prior to her arrival at Zetlin & De Chiara, Ms. Meyer worked in-house at a New Jersey-based general contractor as a Corporate Administrator. There she honed skills in negotiating and drafting owner and subcontractor contracts and modifying subcontractor templates. She gained a thorough knowledge of design-build and design-bid-build projects. She has a vast understanding of CPM scheduling, construction management, OSHA safety requirements, and project cost estimation.

As a summer Associate, she gained experience in work covering general contractor claims in concurrent delay, Article 11, and third-party beneficiary cases, as well as handling delay/impact claims and total cost/modified total cost claims. Additionally, Ms. Meyer worked on cases regarding aerial easements and secondary easements, strict liability, repudiation, and assessment of strict v. liberal compliance in contractual notice provisions under New York law.

Ms. Meyer graduated with a J.D. from George Washington University Law School. She holds a B.A. in History of Art & Architecture from Boston University.
