

Z&D Partner Jaimee Nardiello Named to ABA's Forum on Construction Law Governing Committee

(New York, NY – May 23, 2019) – Zetlin & De Chiara LLP Partner Jaimee Nardiello has been elected to the American Bar Association's Forum on Construction Law Governing Committee.

The Forum on Construction Law is the largest organization of construction lawyers in the United States. Its mission is to serve the construction industry through education and leadership while “Building the Best Construction Lawyers.”

Its roughly 6,000 members and associates are drawn from all types of construction practice – law firms, solo practitioners, in-house and government counsel, as well as construction professionals and the public sector. Forum members represent all segments of the industry: owners, developers, design professionals, contractors, subcontractors, suppliers, construction managers, lenders, insurers and sureties.

Ms. Nardiello, who focuses her practice on disputes involving construction, contracts, and environmental/energy laws, has served the Forum in various capacities since 2010. A former recipient of the Forum Diversity Fellowship, she served as Co-Chair of the Forum's 2016 Annual Meeting, and as a volunteer developing the construction module for the ACE mentor program. Her publications include "Architect-Engineer Contracting," in the ABA's Federal Government Contracts, Third Edition. In 2018, she co-authored the article “Key Considerations for the Use of Peer Reviews in Construction” for The Construction Lawyer, a Forum journal.

She will serve a three-year term as a Member of the Governing Committee beginning in the 2019-2020 Bar year.
